- 3.3 We confirmed that the DESI PAK's performance is better than the "Silica-Gel".

4. Reason of the change

We would like to unify the packing specification.

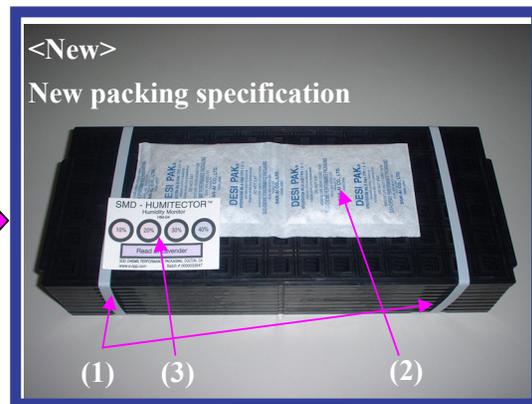

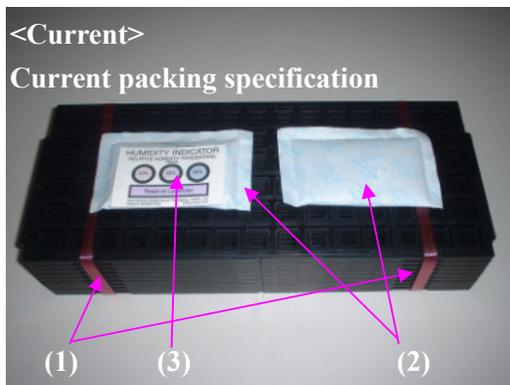

5. Change schedule

We would like to apply this specification gradually, from the product that will be shipped after May 2005.

The timing will vary depending on the inventory, then the period mixing new and old ones will exist.

In addition, there might be a possibility of long-term continuous usage of the current packaging materials, since some products have different storage lives.
